

Students are bringing Pokémon cards (and other trading cards) to school. While this is fine for after school, these cards are becoming a distraction. If your student trades a card(s), please know that the school is not responsible. It is best if these cards remain at home.

Thanks for your help!